

Dear FMC members,

The 2022 Denver Gem & Mineral Show in conjunction with the Hardrock Summit will be held at the Colorado Convention Center from September 8-11, 2022. Hours for the Show are Thursday through Saturday 9:00 am to 5:00 pm and Sunday 9:00 am to 3:00 pm. Tickets are $10/day and can be pre-purchased on the Hardrock Summit's website (<https://hardrocksummit.com/#summit>) or paid for at the ticket counter. Children under 12 years old are free. The Denver Show will include about 30 dealers, fluorescent room, club tables, speakers, display exhibits, education and public sector tables, gold planning, Mr. Bones, and grab bags. The theme of the 2022 DGMS is COLLECTING COLORADO.

Each day will feature one or more speakers, including club members Brian Walko at 1 pm Sunday (Collecting Colorado Fluorescent Minerals) and Ed Raines at 11 am Saturday (Colorado Type Minerals).

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED

The Denver Show is staffed by volunteers. You can find out what jobs are needed and sign up to help at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/4090D45A5AD2EA2F94-denver>. You can also use this link to volunteer to help at the club table. Volunteers should work a minimum of 4 hours and will get a volunteer badge for free admission to all 4 days to all the Shows at the Convention Center and parking/public transit reimbursement (up to $12 per day) on the day(s) you actually volunteer.

Come to the show to see fabulous minerals, fossils, and rocks from Colorado and around the world.

Brian Walko
